Celebrating 33 Years of Elegance

In the midst of the holiday hustle and bustle—if nothing else, we make sure we've got "The List": The grocery list, the dinner party list, the Christmas list, the Sams Club list, the family chore list, the travel list, and the world's most ambitious to-do list!

The work family at Doors of Elegance wanted to remember what the holiday season is truly about this year. Not only are we celebrating 33 years of business, but 33 years of solving the hard problems, learning, and sustained success with our family, friends, and neighbors.

This year we wanted to remind our team and those nearest and dearest to us about what is most important this time of year. And to help us do that, we've created a checklist that really matters, The Doors of Elegance Holiday Checklist!...[read more]

12 Ways to Deck Your Door for the Holiday Season

There's no denying what the holidays are truly about: giving, love, friends & family. But let's be real, it doesn't actually start to feel like the holidays until the decorations go up.

Whether you're a November 1st decorator or a post-Thanksgiving decorator, there's always room for more decor to enhance the holiday spirit.

Oh, and did we mention it will help you to enter our Holiday Decorated Door Giveaway starting December 15th!

That's right, all you have to do is post a picture of your decorated door in the comments of our Giveaway Facebook Post and you'll be automatically entered to win a $50 gift card just in time for the holidays!

On the first day of Christmas I decked my door with...[read more]

The Bevel Bar: Spiked Hot Chocolate

- 1 cup Milk (divided)
- 2 oz Semisweet Chocolate
- 1 Egg Yolk
- 3 oz Baileys Irish Cream (more or less to taste)

1. Heat 1/4 cup of milk and all of the chocolate over low heat in a pan and whisk to thoroughly combine.
2. In a separate pan set on low whisk the egg yolk until smooth and heated, being careful not to let the yolk curdle.
3. Slowly add chocolate mixture by the spoonful into the yolk while whisking continually.
4. Add the remaining milk and heat to temperature. Add Baileys to a mug, and pour in hot chocolate. Top with whipped cream.

Tip: You can always simply add Baileys to any pre-made hot chocolate.
